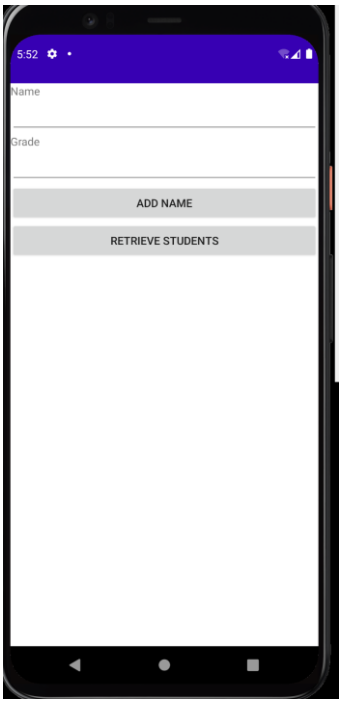
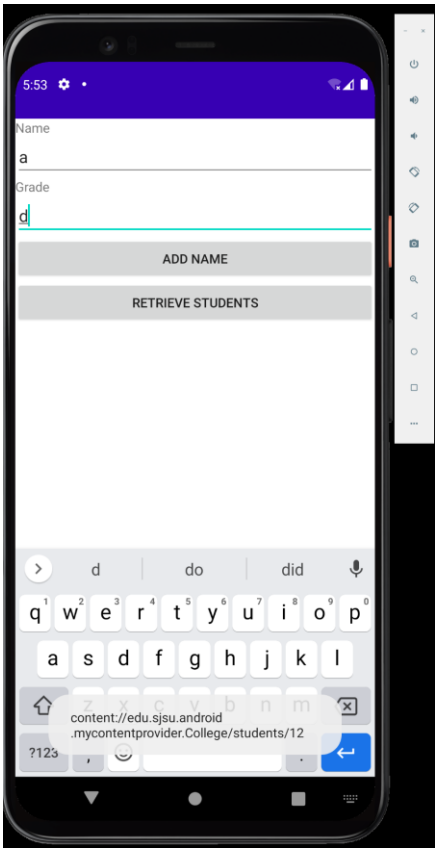
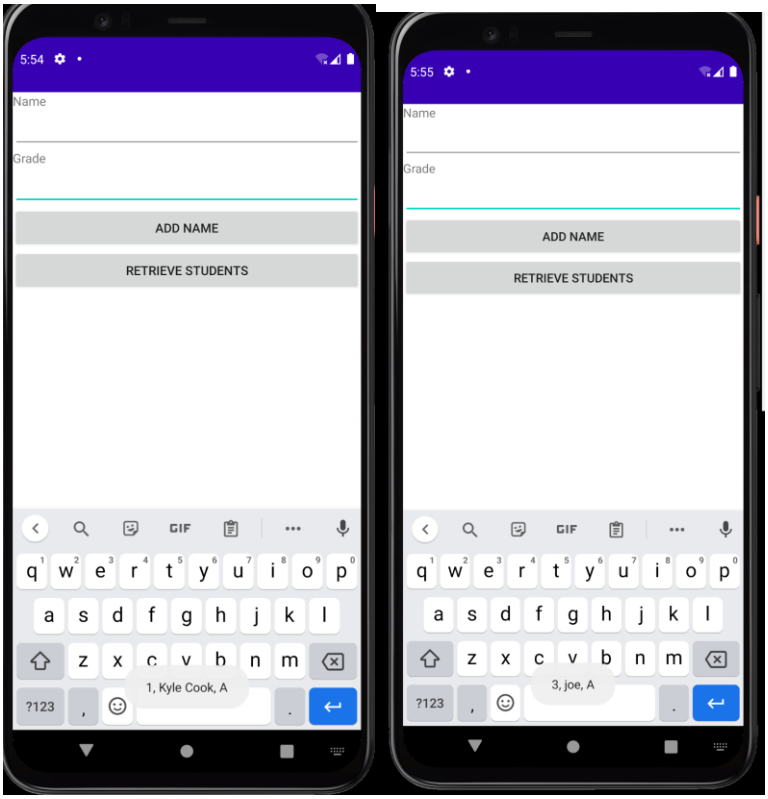
MyContentProvider

One the program is running it will look like this.



Enter info into text boxes and once add name is click it will add information to database, with a message showing where it was added.





If retrieve students button is clicked it will return the student info one by one in a message