

Map App

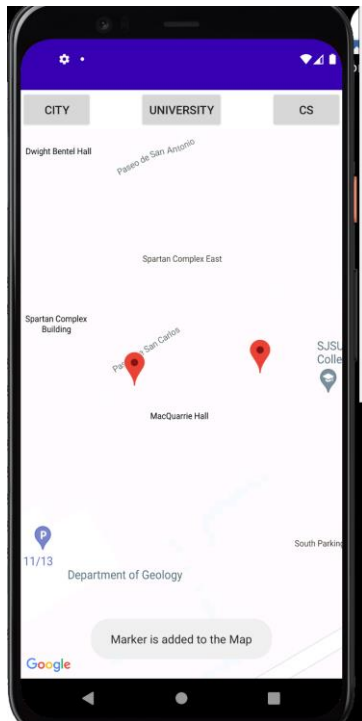

Once the app is running this will be the home screen

When the buttons are clicked it will change the view of the map

If the user clicks on the map it will add a marker and show a message

On a long click the markers will be removed and a message will be shown

