

Kyle Cook - https://bitbucket.org/kyle_cook/hw5/src/master/

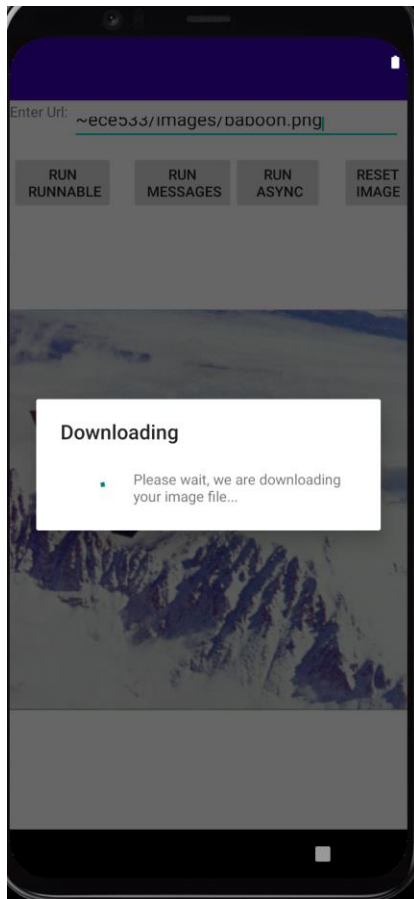

Once the app is running this will be the home screen

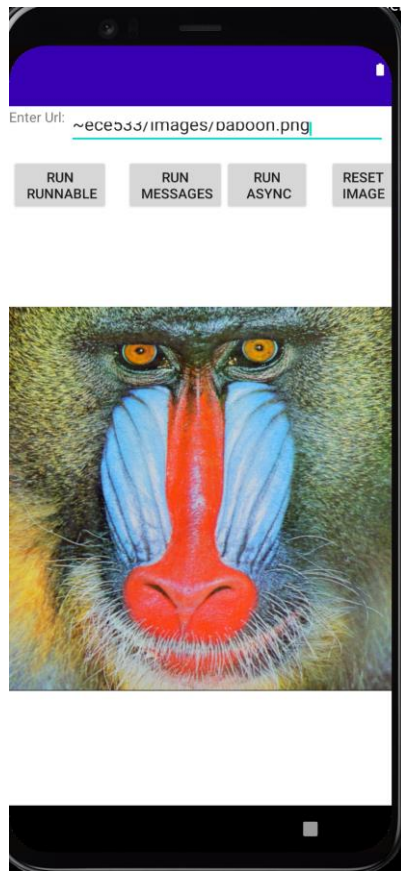

The user will then enter a url in the space provided

Each button will download the image from the url provided by user in their own way

Once finished the new image will appear

Lastly the reset button will restore original image

Errors will appear if function not completed correctly.